Activity Description: Finger patterns: Students work in pairs. The teacher (or a student) gives a target total in the range 11 to 15. Students work together to put up that many fingers in all. Student say or write the related addition sentence. The teacher may add the requirement that students show the quantity as a double or near double. For example, if 15 is the number, one student would show 7 and the other student would show 8.
Teacher Notes: The range of numbers may be extended to 20.
Evidence of Learning (Diagnostic Assessment of Progress): Give a target total of 13. Show 7 on your fingers. Ask student to show on their fingers what goes with 7 to make 13. Repeat for other targets and starting values.
